Ngāti Rangitahi Claims Settlement Bill

The departmental disclosure statement for a government Bill seeks to bring together in one place a range of information to support and enhance the Parliamentary and public scrutiny of that Bill.

It identifies:

- the general policy intent of the Bill and other background policy material;
- some of the key quality assurance products and processes used to develop and test the content of the Bill;
- the presence of certain significant powers or features in the Bill that might be of particular Parliamentary or public interest and warrant an explanation.

This disclosure statement was prepared by The Office for Māori Crown Relations – Te Arawhiti.

The Office for Māori Crown Relations – Te Arawhiti certifies that that, to the best of its knowledge and understanding, the information provided is complete and accurate at the date of finalisation below.

2 March 2021.

Part One: General Policy Statement

The Bill gives effect to certain matters in the Deed of Settlement (the Deed) signed on 5 December by the Crown and Ngāti Rangitīhi. The Deed provides for the final settlement of all the historical Treaty of Waitangi claims of Ngāti Rangitīhi resulting from acts of omissions by the Crown before 21 September 1992. The Bill contains provisions related to the settlement redress that require legislation for their implementation. Other aspects of the settlement are provided for only in the Deed because they do not require legislative authority.

This Bill comprises 3 parts:

- Part 1 sets out the purpose of the Bill, provides that the provisions of the Bill take effect on settlement date, unless stated otherwise, specifies that the Bill binds the Crown, and defines terms used in the Bill, including Ngāti Rangitīhi and historical claims;
- Part 2 sets out in 9 subparts the cultural redress for Ngāti Rangitīhi and includes protocols, a statutory acknowledgement, deeds of recognition, a whenua rāhui, a joint advisory committee, a reserve status reclassification, official geographic names, vesting of cultural redress properties, and a natural resource arrangement; and
- Part 3 sets out in 2 subparts, commercial redress for Ngāti Rangitīhi and includes a right of first refusal and a two-year deferred selection property.

There are 3 schedules to the Bill:

- Schedule 1 describes the areas subject to a statutory acknowledgement and a deed of recognition;
- Schedule 2 describes the areas subject to a whenua rāhui;
- Schedule 3 describes the cultural redress properties; and
- Schedule 4 provides for notices in relation to right of first refusal land.
